

How Does Someone Recover From Losing $50 Million? Losing everything... and then get back to incredible success?

It's a story your listeners will love, and learn and grow from.

Rod Khleif

Rod Khleif is a multiple business owner and philanthropist who is passionate about business, high performance, real estate and giving back.

As one of the country's top business, real estate and peak performance luminaries, Rod has built over 24 businesses in his 40 year business career several which have been worth tens of millions of dollars. He has also owned over 2000 properties.

Rod Khleif soared from humble beginnings as a young, impoverished Dutch immigrant to incredible success. Khleif's experience involves both remarkable triumphs, and spectacular failures, which he affectionately calls "seminars." Rod will explain the mindset required to recover from losing $50 million dollars in the crash of 2008 to the success he enjoys today.

Rod brings incredible authenticity and insight to his approach to business, mindset, real estate, success and life. Rod can talk about the psychology of success, and any business or real estate topic in great depth, contributing incredible first-hand, technical, and motivational knowledge and skills to the conversation.

Rod also founded The Tiny Hands Foundation, which has benefited more than 95,000 children in need.
